

Davide Aloini (PhD, Associate Professor of Management Engineering)

Davide Aloini received the bachelor's and the master's degree in management engineering from University of Pisa, Italy, in 2003 and 2005, respectively. Hence, he has obtained a Ph.D. in Enterprise Engineering, from University of Rome Tor Vergata, Italy, in 2008. Currently he is Associate Professor of Business Process Management and Marketing at the Department of Energy, Systems, Land and Constructions Engineering at the University of Pisa, Italy.

Davide Aloini is author of about 100+ scientific papers (40+ indexed by Scopus) published in peer-reviewed journals (27), book chapters or conference proceedings. He has 1000+ citations and an h-index of 15 according to Scopus. More information is available at <https://www.scopus.com/authid/detail.uri?authorId=18436111500>

In 2008, he was rewarded with a Citation of Excellence Award (among the Top 50 paper) by Emerald for his research on the organizational impact of IS projects. His most recent research interests include Business Process Management and Collaborative ICT solutions, with special interest in Circular Economy, Logistics and Healthcare systems. Specifically, this includes process identification, modelling, analysis and improvement in complex systems and networks; data-driven approach in Operations Management.